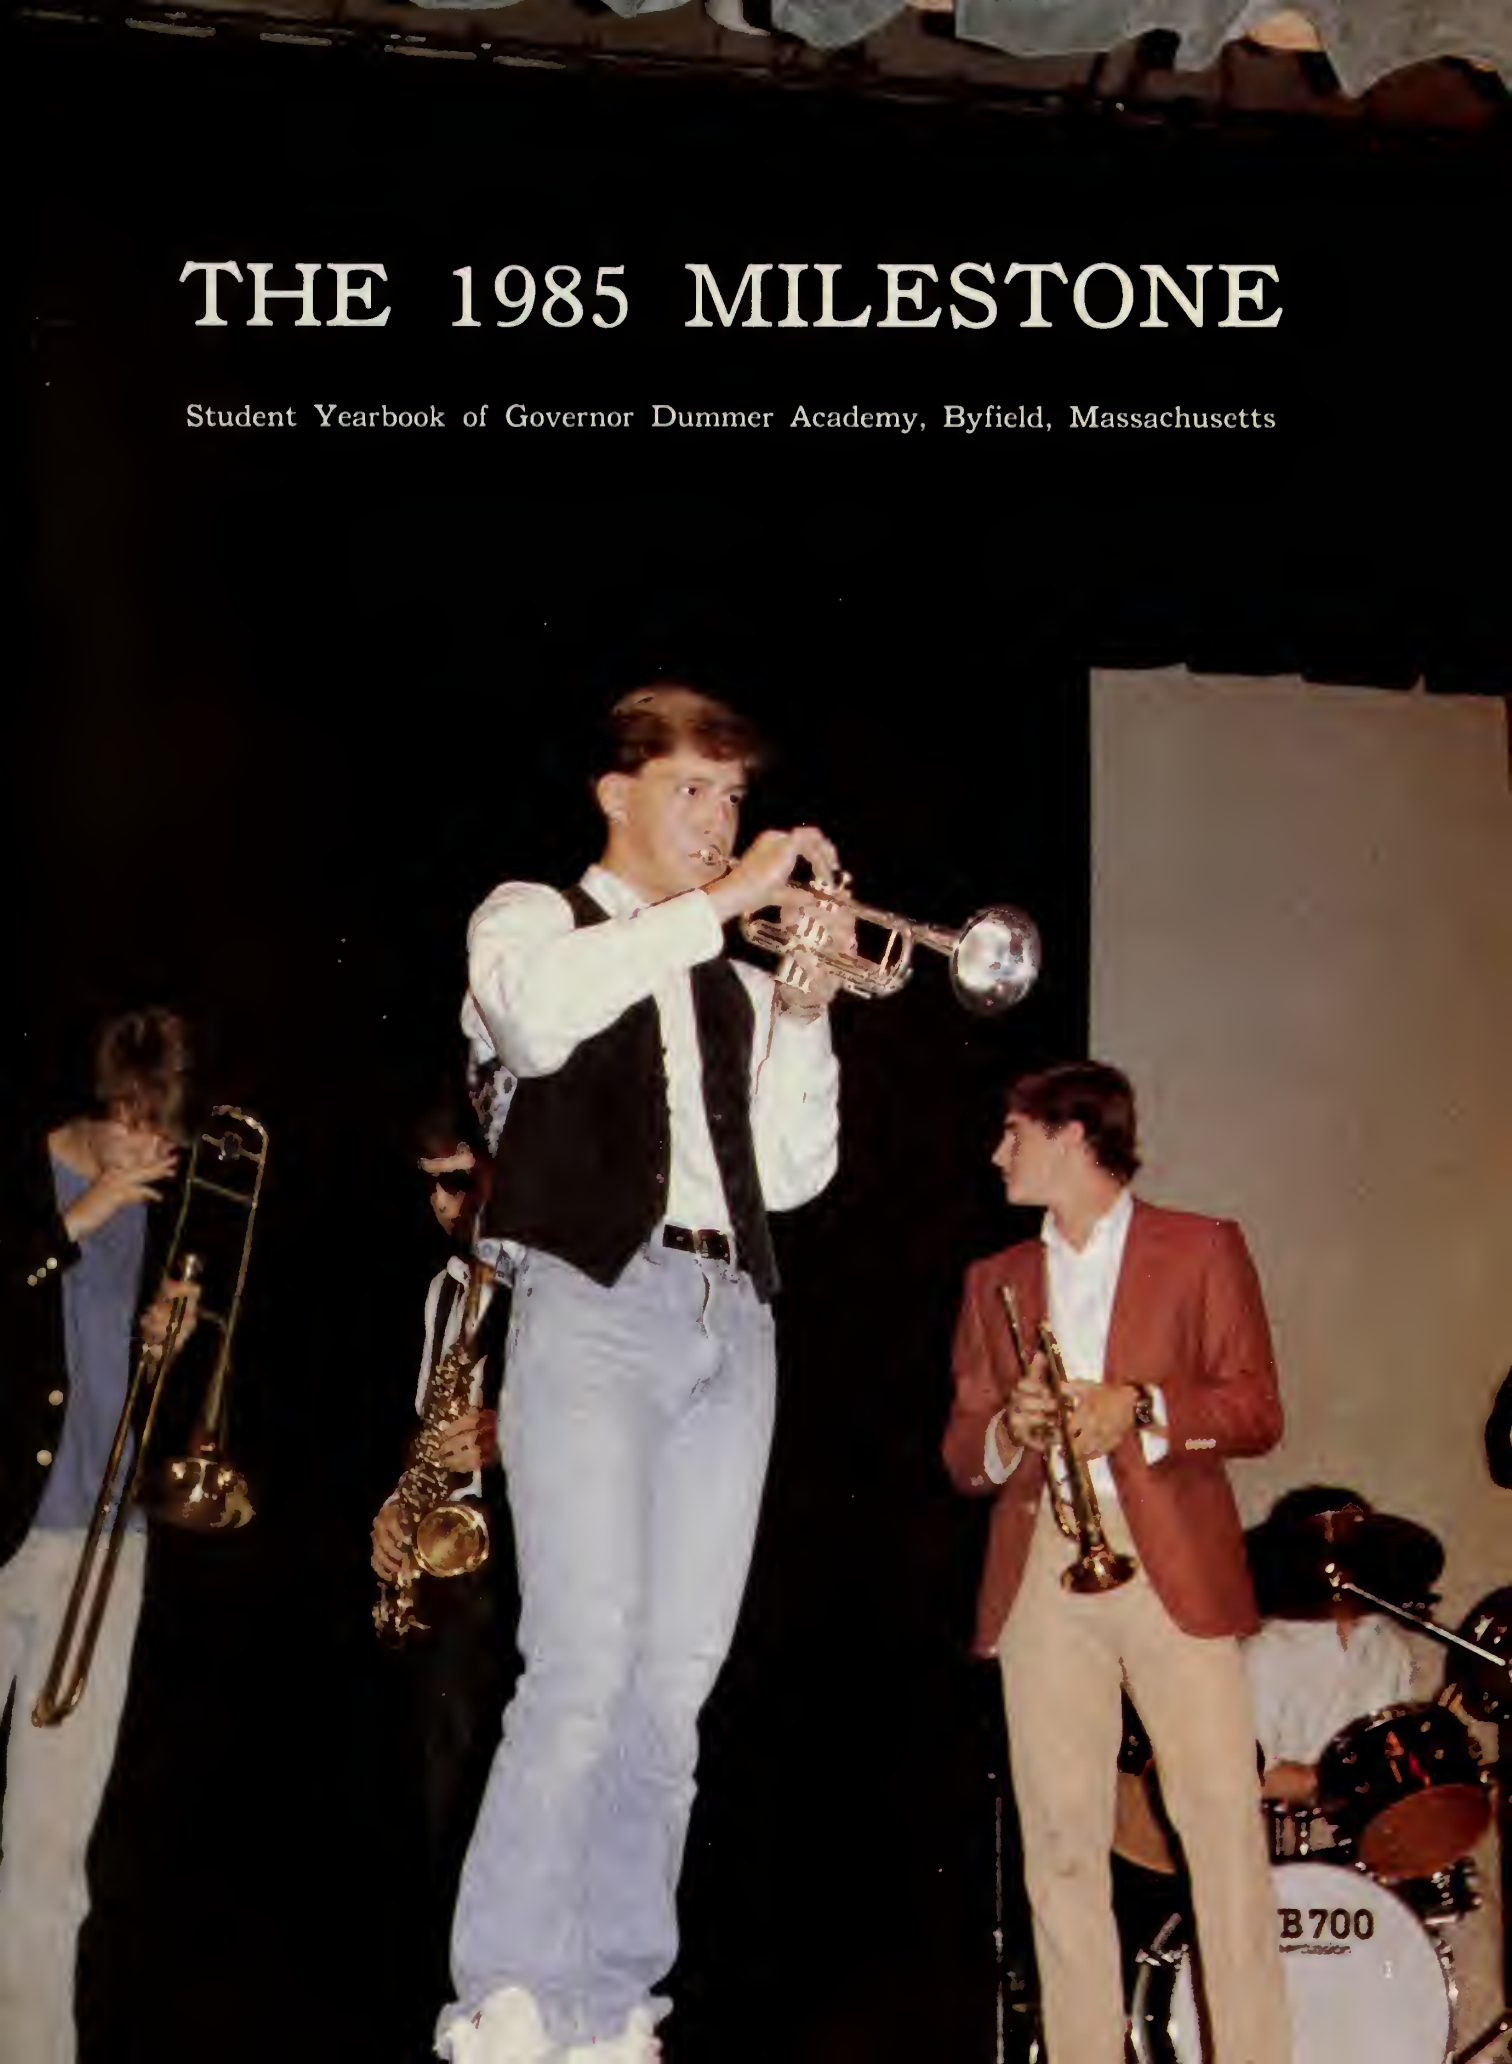
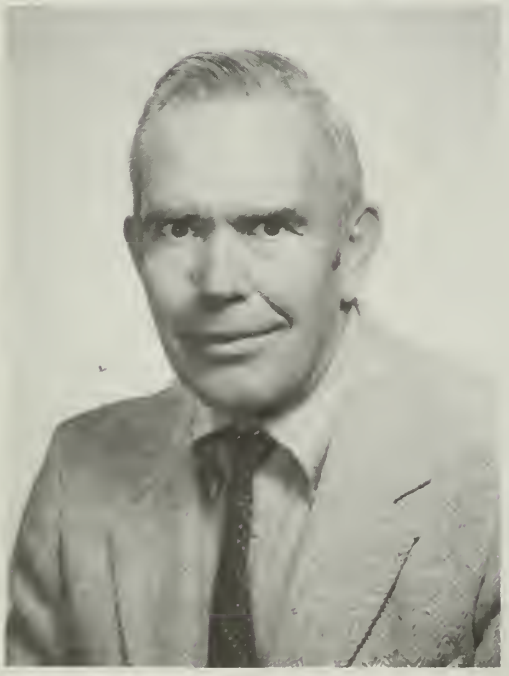
THE 1985 MILESTONE

Student Yearbook of Governor Dummer Academy, Byfield, Massachusetts



DEDICATIONS



G. Heberton Evans III died peacefully on 12 February, 1985 at the age of fifty-eight. He had been a teacher, coach, dormitory master, and friend at GDA for thirty-three years.

It is hard to convey an effective portrait of this man, whose tangible accomplishments were formidable, with his four published books, vast number of athletic wins, and excellence as a teacher.

But more important than these was his ability as a leader. I'll never forget hearing the players on his teams saying how they played, and when possible won, for "Heb", more than themselves, the school, or anything else. He was the kind of leader one wanted to please. One wanted to please him not out of fear, but out of devotion. This is the mark of a great leader.

GEORGE HEBERTON EVANS III

Don't be dismayed at good-byes. A farewell is necessary before you can meet again. And meeting again, after moments or lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends. — R. Bach

Court Heiss, an eighteen-year-old Governor Dummer Senior, died on December fourth, 1984. In July of 1983 he had been stricken with a rare blood disease in his bone marrow that affected his blood production. The only treatment for him were weekly blood transfusions and heavy doses of anti-biotics and vitamins to battle the infections to which he was extremely susceptible. Doctors could not identify his disease, so the treatments he received were only guesses and experiments. After a year and a half, this disease developed into leukemia and killed him.

CHARLES EDWARD HEISS, JR.

Here comes the sun, to chase the ghouls away.
It comes out in phases. Will it come out to stay?
It shines so brightly, bringing life to the day
But they all are numbered and who is to say?
What comes tomorrow? Who has to pay?
He knows the game and he knows how to play.
But something won't let him: in bed he must lay.
He keeps it inside, but it seeps out in a way.
His eyes tell the truth while all else leads astray.
The balloon floats high as waves roll in from the bay.
The sun is still shining as the disc drops for delay.
Make the most of it now. Don't wait for that day,
When the clouds come back and the sun goes away.

— Peter Condon, '85

Court once said "Those who are not busy being born are busy dying." Perhaps he was trying to tell us that in living, we shouldn't just live. We should use each day to learn and experience, and to really get something out of life. This is true living. And those who are not living, well, their spirit is dying. And, as Peter Condon alluded to in his poem on this page, we should not put off living until it is too late.

A night at the opera?

Quinn: Are you serious?
Dan: Of course he's serious!

Clute: Are you sure about that?

TEAMWORK is a special quality which is often overlooked as being an important aspect of a community. Most think of teamwork as members of an athletic team working together to ultimately achieve victory. This is the most common interpretation of the word, however, its boundaries are not that limited.

People must work together, and rely on other people, in order to complete a difficult and demanding task. Without help and support from others, the task becomes many times harder, and much longer to complete. By using teamwork, each member accepts part of the responsibility.

In a small, close-knit community such as Governor Dummer, each member is expected to accept responsibility. With this responsibility, each contributes to the well-being of the community. When the responsibility is neglected, the negligence has an impact throughout the community.

Every aspect of Governor Dummer Academy involves teamwork. Teamwork can be seen in the classroom, on the field, and in each of the organizations. Without teamwork, our community could no longer be addressed as a real community.

— By Jeanne Smith

"We must always continue striving for what we feel is right."

Mr. Hulse retired this year after many years of service to the Governor Dummer community.

George: "Well, Denny, as Daj Hammarskjold said, 'You have never done enough, so long as it is still possible that you have something to contribute.'"

"All your strength is in your union. All your danger is in discord; therefore, be at peace hence forward, and as brothers live together." — The Song of Hiawatha

There are times when the success of the team depends on the actions of individual members of the team. Heroes are made this way.

Mark: "Who invited freshmen to this?"

The leader is the person who is able to see the big picture, make decisions, and give instructions so that the team can complete its task successfully.

Mr. Casazza: I'm sick of these Milestone photographers disrupting my class.

Governor Dummer Academy

Graduation Exercises

June 7, 1985

The Commencement texts are taken from remarks by Mr. Peter W. Bragdon, Headmaster

During these final innings of the year we are awarding those who have excelled. As we present these awards we should keep in mind the teaching and guidance from our faculty which made all this possible and we should keep in mind the strength of the competition for these awards. Thus, as we honor individuals who are fully deserving of these awards we are also honoring the dedication of a community to the highest possible goals in education.

THE ACADEMY PRIZE

Upon the retirement of Headmaster Ted Eames in 1959 the underclassmen of the Academy endowed the already existing Academy Prize so that henceforth at each Commencement it could be given "in honor of Edward W. and Eleanor K. Eames so that the qualities they so deeply admired might be prized in turn by future and succeeding classes."

How could he endure so much with poise, good humor, and dignity? . . . the pain of injury . . . responsibility of leadership . . . loneliness of a straight and sure course . . . academic excellence . . . guiding youngsters . . . an advocate for his school . . . able representative for the students . . . President of the Student Body.

PETER HOWARD QUIMBY

THE MORSE FLAG

The Morse Flag was first awarded seventy-two years ago at the 150th Commencement of this school, and it has been awarded each year since that time to the senior whose record in all respects has met with the highest approval of the faculty. According to the trust established by the late Reverend Glen Tilley Morse, a long-time friend and Trustee of the Academy, a new flag is provided each year in order that the old flag which has flown over the school during the past year may be given to a member of the graduating class.

The visible accomplishments of this year's recipient of the Morse Flag are immense, but behind these obvious successes is the attitude of an unassuming and effective leader . . .

SONG "Young Dreamers" Senior Singers
Stephanie D'Orazio

Yesterday I heard the wind whisper softly in my ear
It seemed to say, "Come with me."
And though I listened, I didn't really hear.
But now I know I've got to be free

Chorus And I've got to see, all I'm meant to see
And I've got to be--I just want to be.

Yesterday is where I keep all my childhood memories
Where I ran through fields of green and gold
But tomorrow's where I have all my endless hopes and dreams,
And that is where I must go.

I've heard them say it can be cold out there
In this world most dreams must die
But no one said that life is always fair,
And I know I've got to give it a try.

I only wish that you could come with me,
And together we'd learn how to fly.
But I guess that wasn't meant to be
So I'll just say good-bye .I can only say good-bye.

I see the path before me, can't look back,
Young dreamers must find their dreams
But I'll always remember times when,
We all dreamed together, and I, hope that you find what you seek

And if our paths should never cross again,
I know in my heart that we will still be friends
It seems it's time for us to make our own way,
I see my childhood fade with yesterday
So find a smile for me, I don't want to cry,
It's just the beginning of another good-bye

Now I see the end approaching, the light fades from the sky,
I've awaited this sunset for so long
And the stars reflect the tears swimming gently in my eyes,
But I know they'll guide me to the dawn

Hopes were high as the Juniors rode from G.D.A. to Smugglers Notch, VT. for the Junior Ski Trip. We anticipated arriving in to warm, plush rooms, good food, and friendly hosts. Quickly we discovered small, cold rooms, terrible food, and very unfriendly hosts; somehow, despite all of the drawbacks, the Ski Trip was an unforgettable time for all. The entire class merged, enjoying the company and companionship of each other and made "good out of a very bad situation". That alone says a great deal about the class of '86.

The class took an original approach in planning their closed weekend, one of the more memorable ones of the year. Highlighted by the movie, "Psycho", the exiting game show, "The Price is Right" (hosted by our "Bob Barker" - Mr. Mulligan), and the "famed Club "86", the weekend proved to be a success.

Following their successful weekend, the Juniors decided to take a different approach to the annual Jr. Class Carnival, planning the first Junior Class Beach Day - "A Fun Filled Day in the Sun". Blessed with a beautiful, sunny day, the entire community enjoyed a relaxing day on Plum Island.

Junior Class President, Paul Nardone, says this of the Junior class: "Our class is a group of diversely talented students, excelling in the classroom, in the arts and drama department, as well as on the athletic fields. Governor Dummer has much to look forward to next year as the charismatic class of '86 assumes the reigns of responsibility and leaderhship".

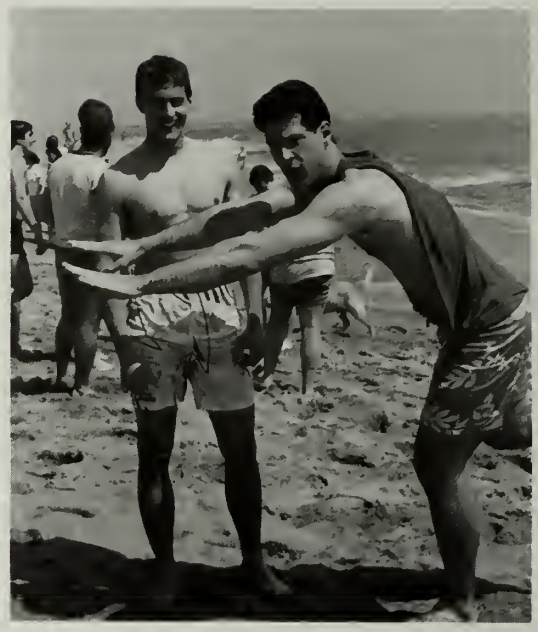
The class of '86 wishes the best of luck to the class of '85.

Pres. to be.

"Hi! I'm just-in from Boxford."

Homework is so enlightening.

JUNIOR BEACH DAY



How many steps?

"Heave!"

SOPHOMORES

This year's Sophomore class, the class of '87, is a strong and talented group, with a wide range of interests. We represent ourselves well in many aspects of life at Governor Dummer. Academically, not only do we have many Honor Roll students, but Peter Barton is on the High Honor Roll. We have many outstanding actresses such as Beth Johnson, Kris Kolbialka, Carla Rivela, Shanie Halpern, and Jennifer Killion. Paula McCarthy, Pam Chase, Kiki Chesterson, and Karen Patton are three season Varsity letter winners. We also represent a diverse number of races and geographic locations: Saudi Arabia, China, California, and Hawaii.

Our class was greatly increased and strengthened this year by the arrival of many new students. They made instant friends, and it feels now as if they have been here forever.

Our biggest project was our weekend, which we planned in January. We featured movies, ice-cream, and a spectacular dance, which was one of the best all year. Although it was hard to get motivated immediately after a vacation, we did it and proved that we can work together. Our cooperation helped us to not only plan, setup, and clean up, but also to overcome a cancelled Talent Show.

Unfortunately, many Sophomores had a difficult year. Many things, both good and bad, evolved in the course of the year, and many changes occured. With some effort, we were able to overcome many barriers, and we seem to have come out on top. All we need now is a little more interaction and togetherness. This is what we're working on, and soon, our class will be stronger than anyone thought possible.

"Get outta here!"

"These are the only teams in the world with a record worse than 3rd's Baseball."

GOVERNORS

The Class of '88 feels it has much to offer G.D.A., now and in the future. Its members have made numerous contributions already: on the stage, on the playing fields, and in the classroom. Most important, the class is strong and unified despite its diversity. The freshmen are a group of multi-talented, ambitious young people who take pride in what they do.

The first chance that the freshmen had to prove themselves was at the final closed weekend of the year. They had the responsibility of organizing various events that would entertain their peers as well as the upperclassmen. They were put to the test when, on Thursday before their weekend, they were told that a change must be made since sports were going to be held on Saturday. After cancelling some plans, and rescheduling others, the freshmen gave the student body an enjoyable weekend. Through organization and cooperation the class overcame all barriers, and succeeded in achieving their initial goal: to make the weekend fun.

The freshmen definitely know how to have a good time. They enjoy each other and many great friendships have already formed. They respect each other as people and are proud of their classmates as well as themselves. They support one another, and are afraid neither to ask for help, nor to offer it. Each freshman has something to give. Their greatest gift, however, is their ever-present optimism. With smiles on their faces, the classmates of '88 look hopefully to the future.

ORGANIZATIONS

COMMUNITY COUNCIL

The Community Council has taken off with a strong start. It began with members attempting to redefine the role of the Council, and establishing some goals. A deliberate attempt has been made to change the image of the group from a "grievance committee" to an "advisory body" that will serve the Governor Dummer Community as a whole. Indeed the original intent behind the establishment of the group was to legitimatize students' opinion in the eyes of the Administration — a goal which has been achieved. The most important goal of the Community Council is to create a responsible body that will serve the entire school not only for this year but the entire future as well.

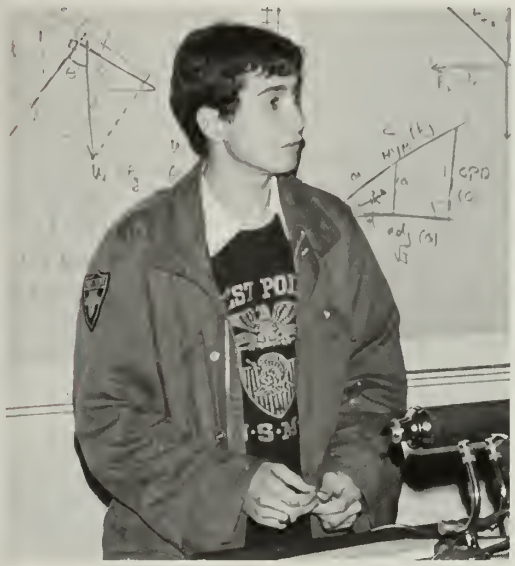
THE GOVERNOR

Eight "Governor" issues were published in the 1984-1985 school year. The editors and staff, with the invaluable help of faculty advisors Katherine and Douglas Guy, worked diligently to inform and entertain the GDA community.

THE 1985 MILESTONE



The yearbook board and staffs were challenged, not only to assemble the 1985 book, but also to assemble most of the 1984 book, and to break the recent trend of Governor Dummer yearbooks being late. All eyes of the Academy were on the "Stoners" as they pulled together to meet the challenge. This book is the result.

This organization is unique in that it is usually only recognized when something goes wrong during a concert or film (very rarely). This club is the silent foundation of a great many GDA social and performing arts events.

TOUR TEAM

Tour team heads Liz Asadoorian, Katie Kaplan, and Esmee Huggard.

The tour team has the important job of showing off the Academy to its future students. This job can also become very hectic when tour guides fall sick or become unavailable somehow, and the heads must find a replacement. They did an admirable job and saw to it that GDA was well presented.

FOOTBALL

Never Did They Give Up

Capt. S. Mahoney, Coach Rybicki, Capt. T. Dinnano

It is unfortunate that the record of wins and losses of a particular team is the only thing that is considered in the final analysis. It is especially unfortunate for this year's football team, which, after losing a game, had the remarkable resiliency to come back and work twice as hard for the next game. This is a truly outstanding achievement considering the number of tough breaks that it had.

The season opened with the Governors travelling to St. Sebastian's, where although they were the dominant team, they fell prey to small errors which St. Sebastian's capitalized on. The Thayer, Brooks, and Groton games really showed how depth hurt the football team this year.

St. Mark's was the next game, and what a game it was!! GDA matched their opponents point for point until the last seconds of the game when the St. Mark's running back scored to give them a win by only three points. The season was finished at the end of the Belmont Hill game, an evenly matched one which the Governors wound up on the short end.

This team may not have won games, but it did play with complete intensity for every play of the season, and never did they give up.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

Magic

Left to Right: Co-Capt./ Co-MVP Hill, Coach Friborg, Co-Capt./Co-MVP Lazo.

The 1984 Women's Varsity Soccer Team was magic. Led by new coach John Friborg, Co-Captains Meredith Lazo and Anna Hill, and a small group of outstanding seniors, including Manager Melissa Huffsmith, the team created a special chemistry that rendered utterly meaningless the scoreboard that counts wins and losses. On the "scoreboard" that does count — the "scoreboard" that measures a team's heart and the degree to which a team's members care about each other, support each other, persevere together — on that "scoreboard", the team was an unqualified and unforgettable success. There were inspiring team efforts (at Exeter, St. Paul's, and Brooks), outstanding individual performances (Meredith was given All-League Honors, Anna and Marie earned honorable mentions), and more than enough individual and collective improvement to go around. While the season ended in tears, the laughs and love of this magic season and team may last a lifetime.

MEN'S SOCCER

Injuries Hurt

At one point or another almost everyone on this year's Men's Varsity Soccer Team suffered an injury. This caused the team's line-up to be constantly changed.

At the end of the season, the loss of three-year veterans Nolden Johnson and Rob Studley seriously damaged the offense. Injuries to backs Jiseop Yoon, Andy Menyhart, and Anthony Fusco crippled the "No-Entry Sentry" squad.

The season started well with wins against both the Alumni and St. George's. After some close games, and some other not-so-close games, the team started to come along. The Governors held most opponents scoreless in the first half, but lost confidence in the second halves.

Although many of the experienced players will be graduating this year, there are also many lettermen who will return to face the challenge of next year.

This year's cross country team was very much a "together" team. The season was filled with team dinners, popcorn parties, and even a team field trip to nearby Amesbury, where they became all too familiar with a half-mile long monster hill. The girls' team showed especial dedication when, in the New England Championships at the end of the year, Jen Grimes and Carey Quinn ran the most difficult course of their lives with extremely painful injuries. In spite of this, they did well, and so did the rest of the women's team as they took first place in the championships. No GDA runners dropped out of this race, although fifteen runners from other schools did drop out.

The captains this year were Esmee Huggard for the women and George Hasapidis for the men. Capt. Hasapidis won't soon forget his baptism by the team in Morse Pond, and is remembered in turn for his barked orders during the team stretches. Capt. Huggard did an excellent job of leading by example: she was also named the women's MVP. Coach Abusamra, for the first time ever, named two MVPs for the men: Mark Ginsberg and Jeff Kelly, who were indispensable members of the team this year, both in terms of strength and in terms of keeping the spirits of the Harriers up, even in the hardest workouts. Other notable runners are Gary Longstreet, who almost always finished in the top three, Kelly Golden, who fought off sickness to come back and make first place possible in the New Englands, and Andy Rockwell, Daryl Conte, Anita Russo, and Carey Quinn, who added depth to their teams.

FIELD HOCKEY

Determination

Nathalie Ames, Coach Clark, Dinah Daley

The 1984 field hockey team depended largely on the determination and devotion of its members. The win — loss record was not an accurate representation of the effort they put in: for some of the players the season started as early as August at Merestead field hockey and lacrosse camp. The players will be remembered for their hard work and their ability to never quit before the final whistle blew. Also, this was a unified group that displayed good sportsmanship at all times.

Outstanding play was led by Nathalie Ames, Becky Chase, and first year player Suzi Black.

Next year, the team will look to Amy Mack and Kiki Chesterton to keep spirits up and put the team back on the winning track.

WINTER

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Teamwork Pays Off

The 1984-85 Varsity Women's Basketball team was very successful. The team itself was composed of many individuals all wanting to improve their own game and all working to create a team. Michelle Royster, Courtney Church, Anna Hill, Alex Marculewicz, and Sue Gage were the returning varsity players joined by the fresh new talent of Karen Tucker, Monique Proulx, Karen Patton, Kiki Chesterton, and Anne Weitzman.

Much time was spent at the beginning of the season listening to Coach DiGuilio's lectures. Because DiGuilio was new, the team had to learn to adjust. The new Coach brought in with him new ideas and techniques. Best of all, the Coach brought with him a great sense of humor which made learning the new philosophy and strategy bearable. The team had its initial doubts, but in time things began to change. The team put the Coach's new ideas into practice and found them to work.

The reason for the success of this team is to be found in its ability to work as a team. The previous two summers the team traveled to hoop camp together. This enabled them to gain an understanding of how to work with their teammates, and to anticipate one another's moves. Thus, outstanding teamwork.

In years past, GDA's basketball team had become one of New England's best among the prep school ranks. This year the Govs became one of the best teams on the Eastern Seaboard with a 24-1 record.

The team quickly won local respect by defeating Xavarian in NY city and playing even with the top teams in Massachusetts. Over Christmas this group showed it's power by placing second in the Benedictine Classic in Virginia. Nationally ranked Goyoga of Washington DC was the only team to defeat the Govs.

The team was led by All-American Steve Bucknall. In just 3 years Steve developed into the best player ever to wear GDA colors. He dazzled many a crowd with magical passes and thunderous dunks. It will be some time before GDA or the ISL forgets Steve Bucknall.

Co-Captain Anthony Fusco was known for his constant poise and hard marked defense. Another key to this team was ISL All-League Derric Small. For clutch shooting the team looked to Paul Nardone. Twin tower Dave Moore swatted away the opposition all season. And the Pine Brothers once again did a fantastic job!

This year's Volleyball team was both undefeated in games and also spirit. Finishing the season 14-0 was not only a tribute to the team's playing ability, but also their receptiveness to playing as a team. At the beginning of the season the team decided that it had three goals: First to finish with an undefeated season, second to play as a complete team, and thirdly and most importantly to have fun and enjoy the sport. This year's team did not only set those goals but also accomplished them. It took a lot of hard work and dedication, but somehow we pulled it off.

Since we had 10 of out 12 players returning varsity, we were expected to produce results. And because of this we felt a lot of pressure, but Coach Clark told us to take one game at a time, and that we did. The M.V.P.s for this year's team were the setter M. Lazo and centerback-spiker E. Huggard. In retrospect, there were actually no stars on this years team, just twelve excellent players that came together to form one excellent team.

We are glad to have achieved an undefeated season for our Coach Ms. Clark to wrap up her Volleyball Coaching career at GDA. Good luck to Ms. Clark, all of those going off to college, and next year's team!

WOMEN'S HOCKEY
An "Icebreaking" Season

The establishment of a women's ice hockey program is a "milestone" in women's athletics at Governor Dummer Academy. Because this year was the team's first, the lady pucksters did not expect to have a winning season. No miracles happened. But the team was successful in that it won all of the games that it played against other first year teams.

Through hard work and dedication, our players have created a strong foundation from which to build next year's varsity. Luckily, the team consists mainly of young players. Out of the twenty-five women on this year's team, twenty will be returning next year. This year's first line will only be losing one player, MVP and captain Stephanie D'Orazio. The other four starters, Melanie D'Orazio (cpt. '85, '86), Amy Mack (cpt. '86), Linsay Rowen, and Anne Taylor will continue to be a powerful first line, that with the experience of working together will lead the team to future victories.

Behind every rapidly improving team, there is usually an excellent coach. There is no way that this team could have done what it did this year without the coaching of Linda Bromley. Coach Bromley took a handful of girls who could barely stand on skates and made them into an extremely strong first year team. Without her dedication to the success of this program, it is doubtful that women's hockey would have even existed at G.D.A. in 1985. But she was not alone. Assistant coach Bevin Cherot ('85) was an immense help to the team in teaching skills and strategy, as well as in maintaining morale. Finally, Jon Shain kept practices running smoothly, as manager. Without this trio, the team could not have accomplished all that it did over the course of the season.

Next year, Governor Dummer Women's Ice Hockey will include both varsity and sub-varsity teams, and will be an official member of the I.S.L.

MEN'S HOCKEY

New Faces

Coach Piatelli, Co-Capt., Co-MVP Quinn Pollock, Co-Capt., Co-MVP Nolden Johnson, Coach Bromley.

There was much anticipation, and apprehension, preceding this year's hockey season. Rumors flew around campus about the new faces associated with the team. We were going to be led by a new coach who had enjoyed much success at Kent school. The returning lettermen spent many hours speculating on how badly "HE" would kill us in tryouts. This speculation was the result of numerous rumors generated by Kent alumni and students and imported to Governor Dummer.

As it turned out, the new coach, Mr. Piatelli, turned out to be pretty tough, but also pretty good. He developed, along with the help of Mr. Bromley, who was also new, a good, young, and high-spirited team. Quinn Pollock, Nolden Johnson (the co-captains) and Steve Barrett, the team's only seniors, set the tempo for the others.

The season looked to be promising, but it was hampered by the leg injuries of Nolden, Rob Studley, and Bill Bronson, causing them to start late in the season. Shooting for a .500 season, the team fell short on paper, but we know that we were better than that.

The best game of the season was a scrimmage against Keller division school Nobles and Greenough. The team played a hard-fought, fast-skating game that ended in a 5-5 tie in overtime.

Inspiration was gained in many ways. A pep talk by Mr. Piatelli, a hip check by Nolden, a crowd-pleasing save by goalie Quinn, a goal by the diaper line, or a quick passing goal by Rob and Steve kept the team's spirit up. Talent is usually precluded by inexperience, but this team made up for its youth through its spirit and sheer hard work.

At the end of the season, Quinn and Nolden received much credit, which was earned through the help of the whole team. Both were named to the all-league team, and both played in the East-West senior all-star game. Rob Studley and Quinn Pollock were named to the 2nd all-tourney team and Nolden to the 1st.

NORDIC SKIING

Getting In Shape

The 1984-85 Governor Dummer Ski Team spent this year getting back in shape. After last year's disastrous record of no wins, the team had no way to go except up. And with the return of Coach Alec White from his two years in Mexico, the team did just that. Countless time trials and hard workouts paid off in enabling GDA to be seventh (up from ninth last year) in the league of nine schools. Also helpful were the races between the two half-team squads. Twice a week, Kelly's Killers, under the leadership of co-captain and MVP Jeff Kelly, and the Hasapidis Horrors, under co-captain George Hasapidis, would battle it out in races which were heated on the golf course, which was definitely not.

Although valuable skiers Jeff Kelly, Matt Haack, and George Hasapidis will graduate with the great class of '85, the team has enough depth in Shad Uttam, Cabot Orton, Dave Almy, Jason Katsapetses, and others to continue to improve. Also, the strenuous and effective coaching of coaches White and Corcoran will bring new days of glory to competitive skiing at GDA.

The races were tough. Strong winds, finger-numbing temperatures, and hard, icy snow combined to make the races tests of will as well as tests of strength and skill.

Also difficult were the mass starts of some of the races, with over a hundred stampeding, blood-thirsty skiers trying to establish themselves in the pack. Complicate that with sharp flying pole tips and skis getting entangled and you have one trying situation. But the team as a whole met the challenge well and put out admirable effort every time.

WRESTLING

Wrestlers Give Coach Evans 200th Win

Coach Heb Evans with Capt. Andy Webber.

Wrestling is an individual as well as a team sport. Many wrestlers feel as though they do it only for themselves, and they cannot be blamed. They have their personal goals as motivations, and on the mat they are one-on-one with their opponents. Wrestlers go through a lot of pain and endurance in preparing for a match. And they must battle their weight as well as fear and anticipation.

The mental stress plays a large role in the outcome of a match. Psyching out the opponent may make or break a match. The wrestler must also rely on learned techniques to be a winner.

Coach Heb Evans knew all of these aspects of wrestling, and this is part of what made him a superb coach. As long as each individual did his part the best he could, Heb would take care of the rest. Ironically, our last meet, the only one without him, marked Heb's 200th career win. The team is very proud of this achievement. Even though he was a rough, stubborn perfectionist, he was also a fine and caring man, and gained the respect of all the team.

As a team, we placed 5th in the Graves-Kelsey League Tournament and 2nd in the New England Independent school tournament. Individual winners in the Graves-Kelsey were Pete Condon with fourth place and Tim Carmichael and Greg Waldman with third places. Andrew Webber and Jim Tagg took first places. In the New England Prep School Wrestling Tournament Carmichael and Waldman again took third places and Webber and Tagg emerged champions.

MODERN DANCE

Poetry in Motion

The dance program at Governor Dummer has grown much larger in recent years. Under the instruction of Donna Roaf, each day the dance troupe worked on perfecting their technique. Their particular technique is called the "Luigi" style. Along with the Luigi style, dancers choreographed their own pieces, which were performed in the final show in March.

In March, the dancers exhibited the result of their hard work and planning. Since November, each student worked on completing her solo or group dance. A lecture/demonstration of the actual dance class was given by the dancers who chose not to perform on stage.

In retrospect, the dance program this year was very successful, and will continue to be next year.

WOMEN'S TRACK

Third Championship Season

Coach Letvinchuk, Capt. Asadoorian, Coach Sperry.

The Women's Track Program at GDA is thriving. The talent of recent years and the coaching have combined to form a very successful program. This year's team proves that very point. Fourteen returning members combined with five new members to form a small but successful group. This nucleus of fourteen was coming off a very successful season which was capped off by a championship at M.I.T. The new people blocked gaps that were left by graduating and non returning members.

The season started off very successfully with a big win over St. Paul's, Worcester and Andover followed. In the best meet of the season, a home one against Milton, GDA suffered a very tough and close loss. The final score, 65-60, was the closest a women's GDA Track Team had ever come to Milton. On that day, like many others, the performances were outstanding.

All the hard work that went into preparing for the meets culminated at M.I.T. On a rainy Saturday, the girls team traveled down there to face some very tough competition. Yet again superior talent and coaching shone through and another very successful season was capped off with a third consecutive Championship.

This spring, Men's track had it tough. Our record was by no means indicative of our performance - two meets were decided by the final event - the mile relay. This event was our only weakness since the relay team varied with every meet. Despite these two close losses, each group of the team did its part to score points. The weight men had Mike Redgate, Steve Bucknall, and Dan Collins (Interscholastic champ - javeln) to do their bidding. Jon Sanders (new school record - pole vault), David Moore, Paul Nardone, and Derric Small ran up against tough opponents from St. Paul's and Milton but performed well as the sprint group.

The Distance Crew outscored its opponents by 14 points over the season with their "Big Three" - Mike Terrile, Jeff Kelly, and Gary Longstreet. Gary also was this season's MVP. This season also saw Mark Gingsberg finish his 12-th straight term running for GDA - a distinguished accomplishment. Next year the team looks forward to Paul, Derric, and Dave, returning as well as javeln thrower Tom Wallace, sprinter Dave Dunwell and 800 meter runner Mike Curtis to name a few. If this team keeps its strong, high spirit, it will have the force to contend with the best.

WOMEN'S LACROSSE

Fun and Games?

This year we had an all around tough season. We were led by our All-American player, Anna Hill, and our leading scorer, Meredith Lazo. We had a tough defensive wall, and a quick offensive line. And as the year progressed the two lines learned to come together and work as one. This team had spirit regardless if we won or lost.

During the day all of us would go our own special ways, but we knew that wherever we were the team was getting revved up for practice and being together once again. We had a very diverse group with one large thing in common: a love for Lacrosse!

"3 cheers for Farrington ... Hip Hip Hooray!" ... "We can't run today - We have rag doll disease!" ... "Abbey will you go away!" ... "Let's do the Carla!" ... "New warmup today girls, o.k.? 3 Shuttles." ... "Back to Basics." ... "Spread 'em!" ... "Vogues" ... "Ohh Es and Jill, scurry scurry!" ... Nice jump Irish." ... "1st time pick-up." ... "Hurt goalie, Play goalie." ... "My ball, My ball." ... "No Shot!" ... "Gabby plays goalie again?" ... "Frosh and her Purple bloomies." ... "Mer-do you want a concussion?" ... "Mo - look up!" ... "Girls, stop looking at men's La-x please!" ... "6:15 practice" ... "Girls don't forget to wear your hats at the beach!" ... "Hey, how come Lisa has 3 sticks? Oops, 2 of them are her legs!" ... "The quickest cut, back to the dorm!"

Capt. Lazo, Coach Clark, Capt. Hill.

MEN'S LACROSSE

New Beginnings

This year's varsity lacrosse season differed from others in the past in two aspects; the loss of one coach and the gain of another. After the loss of our beloved and respected Coach Evans, we then began our search for a new coach. Mr. Shea filled his shoes more than adequately. Although his methods and philosophies were different, the team knew that it was for its own good. This year's record was 6-9, we lost many games that were close to the end. The team's greatest accomplishment was its defeat of league champs St. Paul's in the final game of the season. This was an accomplishment because it proved to the players that the whole season's work had come together to defeat the favorites. The varsity lacrosse team was different than other teams on campus, for its strengths lay not in extraordinary skill and talent, but in the willingness to work hard and enjoy themselves at the same time. Hard work indeed payed off for being outmanned in every game did not take the toll that it might have. The team fared well against many schools much larger than G.D.A. and left its mark on all of its opponents.

Best Record in Years

This year's club proved it could play with the strongest teams in the league as it earned the best record G.D.A. baseball has had in the past few years. The most impressive victories came against BB&N, Milton, and always fun to beat, Brooks.

The group was led by co-captains Dave Starensier and Anthony Fusco. Starensier consistently opened the hitting attack, and in the field he covered a lot of ground at shortstop. Fusco was the workhorse pitcher, earning five personal victories. These two will be sorely missed.

Sharing the pitching duties with Fusco were Mike "Cal" Huggard, who threw hard in his appearances, and junior newcomer John Huard. Sharing the catching duties for this staff were senior Rob Lessard and Junior Mike Jasse.

With a little luck, this team would have been a contender. The bunch lost more than a couple games by one run in late innings.

The future shines bright for G.D.A. baseball. Power hitting infielders Rob DeLena and Greg Waldman will pace the attack, while John Huard, John Khantzian, and Adam Kneissler will earn respect off the mound. Also, look for Jeff Ashworth and speedy Andy Eaton to control the outfield. This team will have the experience and talent to post a winning season.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

Adjusting to Changes

Once again the Women's Varsity Tennis team had a losing season. But then again what else can be expected of a 5-year-old team. Actually we expected a lot. Our first goal was to better our 2-10 record of the '84 season, which we did. Our second goal was more of a must. We had to take a new team and a new coach and form a stable, working team. Our new coach was Katy Eames. The first few months were trying for us all, but we got our gripes out of the way and became very close.

With 4 returning players, we left a lot of openings for new talent from the freshman and sophomores. Once the original ladder was set, our nerves from tryouts were calmed. Tennis is a very individualistic sport, therefore everyone has their ups and downs. But, through them all we had a great time. We all enjoyed also the companionship and coaching of our new coach. Best of luck in '86.

Capt. Courtney Church, Coach Katy Eames.

A Young Team On The Rise

Front, kneeling: Mgr. L. Sevilla, Capt. J. Blau. Standing: C. D'Orio, W. Enderby, T. Jansen, B. Bronson, R. Woodie, D. Wezniak.

Coach Rowe, Capt. John Blau.

The team was young: six sophomores, a freshman, and a senior, and was led by Captain Jon Blau and MVP and #1 Rich McNabb. The team had an enjoyable season under Mr. Rowe's undeniably colorful supervision as coach and mentor.

The season was a long one with almost every Wednesday and Saturday taken up playing matches against some very tough teams such as Milton, Middlesex, and Belmont Hill. However, G.D.A. did not come bottom in the league this year because the team won two matches, Namely Thayer and St. Sebastian's. These wins did much to boost the team's confidence. Many of the players played well against some of the better teams but were unfortunate to lose, especially against Lawrence where we lost by 11-7.

On the whole, the team may look back on the '85 season as a season of development and experience that will hold them in good stead for the next two seasons as all but one of the players are returning. Rumor has it that the school is to be injected with some more talent next year. This year's team strove hard to improve and produced a great amount of camaraderie and spirit from the work put into playing "the game".

Many thanks to Leslie Sevilla, our manager, and of course to Mr. Rowe for coaching us in an eventful and enjoyable season. Good luck next year!

GOLF

A Very Strong Season

Front Row: T. Cheung, A. Brockmann, G. Warden, W. Farley, W. Osgood, J. Montrone, J. Sullivan, J. B. Burgess, D. Macklem. Second Row: Coach McDonnell, D. Greenstein, J. Shain, C. Twomey, S. Breiseth, A. Menyhart, D. Fung, R. Shain.

The 1985 Golf Team had one of its strongest seasons this year, coming in second in the Interscholastic league championships and second in the prestigious Witherspoon Cup — a three round competition against Andover and Exeter.

The team played well through strong effort from each member of the team. New student to G.D.A. Derek Fung came out for golf and challenged co-captain Andy Menyhart for the number one spot. His arrival, and a strong 9-0 record by co-captain Jon Shain, led the team to an 8-1-2 record. The team showed camaraderie at all times, whether waiting for the number eight player to finish his round, or having practice in the rain.

This year, intra-team competition has been more keen, and the practices have been more intense.

Good luck to next year's captains Steve Breiseth and George Liss, and to the rest of the team.

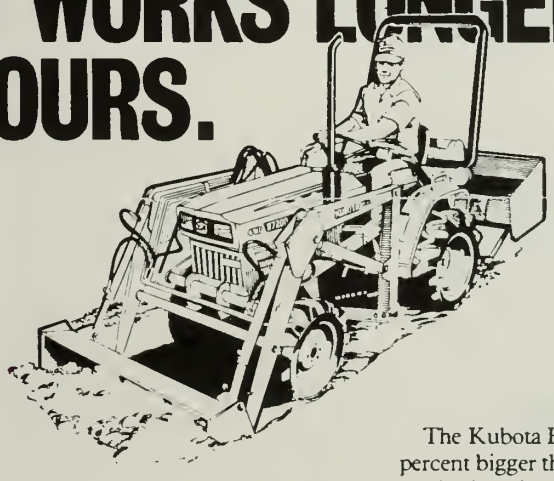
IT WORKS LONGER HOURS.



The Kubota B7200HST has a bigger fuel tank. In fact, at 5.3 gallons, it's more than 50 percent bigger than its predecessor. So you can work long hours, and you won't have to run back to the pump for a fill-up.

This tractor does make going back and forth easier, with a hydrostatic transmission. Just press your toes on the pedal to go forward. Put your heel down to back up.

Under the hood you'll find a 3-cylinder, 17-horsepower, liquid-cooled diesel engine. Other features include 2-speed live, mid and rear PTO, choice of two- or four-wheel drive, 3-point hitch and a comfortable operator platform.

And the longer you look at our new B7200HST, the more you'll see to like.

CLOSING WORDS FROM THE EDITOR IN CHIEF

The Commencement section is near the beginning of this book.

That is because Commencement is just that — the start of something. Commencement is a beginning. The student leaves behind his years at Governor Dummer, keeping with him his memories and the lessons he has learned, and ventures out into a new day. Even as the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" fade from his ears, dawn is breaking, and a new sun is rising in the east.

Live well.
